

- FIRSTRUN Workshop -

26 September 2016 | CEPS Place du Congrès 1, 1000 Brussels

E(M)U governance: From policy coordination to resource centralization?

Programme

Welcome – Cinzia Alcidi and Niku Määttänen

- 9:30 – 10:00 Revisions of structural budget balance data and the impact on the EU fiscal framework
Matthias Busse, CEPS
- 10:00 – 10:15 Discussant: Tero Kuusi, ETLA
- 10:15 – 10:45 Cross-Country Long-Run Spillover Effects and Coordination of Fiscal Policy: a Quantitative Exploration for Europe
Thomas Davoine, IHS
- 10:45 – 11:00 Discussant: Lukas Vogel, European Commission
- 11:00 – 11:15 Coffee break
- 11:15 – 11:45 One EMU fiscal policy for the euro
Alexandre Cole, LUISS
- 11:45 – 12:00 Discussant: Niku Määttänen, ETLA
- 12:00 – 12:30 Income insurance: a theoretical exercise with empirical application for the euro area
Gilles Mourre, European Commission
- 12:30 – 12:45 Discussant: Cinzia Alcidi, CEPS
- 12:45 – 13:00 Closing remarks
- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch

This meeting is part of the Firstrun project, funded by the European Commission under Horizon2020 framework Programme. The project aims to investigate the need for fiscal policy coordination in the EU, assess the coherence of the recent reforms in the economic governance framework, and identify reforms to fill possible gaps in the current EU economic governance framework.

